OPS Level 3 Briefing Note

Incident Number	22-17557
Update	69
Division
Sector
Type of Incident	Freedom Convoy
Location	Ottawa
Incident Date and Time	28/01/2022 13:29

Brief Synopsis

Current Situation as of 0830 hrs.

There are no people on Parliament Hill and there are minimal people in the Wellington, Elgin, Rideau and Sussex corridor. There has been no change in our geographic footprint. There is anecdotal reports of some vehicles leaving the area overnight but this is consistent with prior weekend activities. There are reports of individual trucks leaving the downtown area this morning. There are plans for a detailed overview by OPP Air Services later today to obtain a more accurate picture.

The integrated deployment of officers from OPS, OPP and RCMP continues. They are covering a variety of static, QRT and mobile response roles. Traffic services and PLT members will be deployed this morning. The POU numbers will be reduced due to forced down time and rotation of members from supporting services.

Overnight, there were two reported incidents. One involved two suspects throwing paint at trucks parked on Metcalfe/Laurier and a second incident where someone was arrested after being caught slashing tires of vehicles in the Metcalfe/Albert area.

There will be a scheduled closure of the Chaudiere Bridge later today for maintenance.
